

MASTER THE ART OF LEADERSHIP SUCCESSION

Discover how to navigate the complexities of taking over the reins of an EO business.

Based on in-depth research commissioned by the EOA and undertaken by Telos and J Gadd Associates, this course combines evidence with multi-sector business experience to provide an overview on how to successfully take on the leadership of an EO business.

Whether you're a new or established leader, this 1-day course will help you understand the key elements of a great EO business and how to position both the business and yourself for long-term success.

HOW TO BOOK

Book a place using our booking form or contact us via email at: eolearn@employeeownership.co.uk

This interactive workshop will provide you with an opportunity to learn from other leaders facing a similar challenge, gain insights into best practice, share experiences, and exchange ideas that will enable you navigate the challenges of leadership succession.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Any individual or leadership team taking over from an owner of a business transitioning to EO – or that is already employee owned
- Anyone who's preparing for or who has taken on leadership of an EO business

DATE & LOCATION:

25th April 2024 at Howden Group
One Creechurch Place, London,
EC3A 5AF

Nearest tube stations:
Aldgate & Liverpool Street

COSTS:

£650 +VAT - members
£800 +VAT - non members

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN:

- How to overcome the challenges faced by successors
- How to successfully take the helm of an EO business and lead it forward